

PARISH GRAVEYARDS

During the summer months I intend, with the advice of the members of the Parish Finance and Pastoral Councils to prepare a detailed Rules and Regulations that will govern the use and upkeep of the cemeteries.

In the meantime I would ask you to respect the guidance given by my predecessor, Fr Collins. In summary:

- (i) All new cemeteries are to be treated as lawn cemeteries i.e. NO surrounds are allowed
- (ii) NO new benches
- (iii) If dogs are on Church property they must be on leads. The Church grounds are NOT places for walking dogs or indeed for toileting dogs!
- (iv) All waste materials must be taken home.

Church grounds and indeed graveyards / cemeteries are sacred grounds and must be treated with the greatest of respect and reverence.
I thank you for the care you take with loved one's graves.

If there is any doubt about a matter concerning graves please discuss with me.

Mgr Bryan McCanny

NIGHT PRAYER

As I lie down on my right side,
I pray to God to be my guide
If any evil comes to me,
That I might have my eyes to see
And my right hand to bless me.
There are four corners on my bed
Four blessed angels on thy(em) spread
Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.
God bless this bed that I lie on
If I should die before I wake,
Lord God my soul to take,
Lord have mercy on us.
Christ have mercy on us.
Amen.
